

I strongly support the ability to pay for via XM radio information such as traffic and weather information. The broadcasters should obviously not have a monopoly on what is merely public information and dissemination thereof. The President and all Americans support free and open competition (in addition to our Constitution) and for these and a hundred reasons more any one should be able to provide what amounts to free speech and information that is helpful to the public. Rick Hurley